

CANDIED MEYER LEMON FRENCH 75

A little while back I shared a recipe for Candied Meyer Lemons and Blood Oranges and I thought I'd share a quick cocktail recipe I worked up using the lemons! I opted to use vodka from a local distillery for this spin on a French 75, but you could use gin if you prefer. I love the slight tangerine flavor that Meyer lemons give this drink, but if you can't find them you could use regular lemons in their place. This cocktail is really simple and was a bit hit with our friends.

Ingredients.

1 slice candied Meyer lemon
1 tsp Meyer lemon juice
6 oz champagne
1/2 oz chilled vodka
1 tsp Meyer lemon juice

Directions.

Drop lemon slice into a champagne flute, add lemon juice, vodka, and top with champagne! Stir gently and enjoy immediately.
